NOTICES TO MARINERS.

Saigon is declared an infected port on account of Cholera.

C. W. BECKWITH, Commander, R.N.,

HARBOUR DEPARTMENT,
HONGKONG, 14th June, 1922.

His Majesty's Consulate-General,
Bangkok, May 29th, 1922.

Sir,—I have the honour to inform you that the competent Siamese authorities have decided to adopt in future the following method of applying the quarantine regulations which exist for the port of Bangkok :—

- (1.) When quarantine is declared against a foreign port, ships arriving from the said port will in future call at Paknam for inspection, instead of at Koh Phra, in the event of their being bound for Bangkok proper (i.e. if they cross the bar of the Menam River).
- (2.) Ships from a port against which quarantine has been declared will, if calling at Koh Sri Chang only, be inspected at Koh Sri Chang.
- (3.) Ships inspected and found clean will be given pratique at once. Ships inspected and found unclean (infected or suspect) will be dealt with at the discretion of the Medical Officer of Health. He may send them to Koh Phra, if necessary.

The above arrangement has been devised in order to avoid the inconvenience which has hitherto been caused by vessels arriving from quarantined ports having in every case to call for inspection at the island of Koh Phra.

I understand that it is the intention of the authorities to deal as far as possible with each case individually, and to lay down no hard and fast rule to govern the actual quarantining of vessels arriving from ports against which quarantine has been declared.

I have, &c.,

J. CROSBY,
Acting Consul-General.

The Colonial Secretary,
Hongkong.
