Saving of the rights of the Crown and of certain other persons.

11. The Zetland Hall Trustees Incorporation Ordinance, 1915, is repealed.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 4 of 1915.

Objects and Reasons.

Zetland Hall and the property on which it stands is vested by Ordinance No. 4 of 1915, in certain Trustees all of whom are members of Zetland Lodge and who are required by that Ordinance to hand over to Zetland Lodge all moneys they receive from those other lodges which are permitted by Zetland Lodge to use the premises for their meetings. The members of Zetland Lodge have found the cost of maintaining the properties too heavy in recent years to be borne by a single lodge and as a result of negotiations the other lodges mentioned in clause 2 of the Bill have agreed to share the responsibility and to pay to Zetland Lodge an agreed amount for the surrender of their exclusive control. This Bill therefore substitutes a new Ordinance for No. 4 of 1915.
