

No. S. 103.—Statement of Sanitary Measures adopted by Hongkong.

Disease.	Port or Place.	Restrictions in Force.	Authority.
Small-pox.	Saigon.	Medical examination; quarantine at the discretion of the Health Officer.	Notification No. 70 of 7th February, 1924.

No. S. 104.—A Government garage of nine compartments near Magazine Gap in the Peak District will be available shortly for the use of residents in the district. Applications for renting a compartment should be made in writing to the Colonial Treasurer.

The following rules will be enforced for the occupation of Government garages on the Peak:—

- (i.) The rent for each compartment of a garage is $25 a month, payable at the Colonial Treasury in advance on the first business day of each month. This rent includes heating, lighting and water.
- (ii.) All tenancies will be reckoned from the first day of the month and no tenancy of less than one month will be recognised.
- (iii.) One month's notice from either side to discontinue the tenancy must be given.
- (iv.) The tenant is responsible for all damage to the compartment occupied by him, or for any damage caused by him or his servants to any part of the garage.
- (v.) The tenant is responsible for keeping the compartment occupied by him in a clean condition, and on vacating the premises will be charged the cost of cleaning and all damage other than fair wear and tear.
- (vi.) No persons other than the Government caretaker will be allowed to reside in a garage.

CLAUD SEVERN,
Colonial Secretary.

17th April, 1924.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

No. S. 105.—It is hereby notified that sealed tenders in triplicate, which should be clearly marked "Tender for the supply of Leather Shoes for Water Police", will be received at the Colonial Secretary's Office until Noon of Friday, the 25th day of April, 1924, for the supply of the undermentioned shoes for the Water Police, viz.:—

More or less—220 Pairs Leather Shoes.

No tender will be received unless the person tendering produces a receipt to the effect that he has deposited in the Colonial Treasury the sum of $50 as a pledge of the bona fides of his offer, which sum shall be forfeited to the Crown, if such persons refuses to carry out his tender, should his tender be accepted.

For forms of tender apply at the Colonial Secretary's Office.

For further particulars apply at the Office of the Captain Superintendent of Police.

The Government does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

A sample of the shoes should be submitted with the tender.

E. D. C. WOLFE,
Captain Superintendent of Police.
