

5. The Governor shall appropriate out of the general revenue and assets of the Colony such sums as may be necessary to provide for all payments of interest and repayment of principal moneys required by the terms of the agreements under which the respective principal moneys were or shall be borrowed.

Appropriation for service of trade loan.

6. All principal moneys acknowledged by the Secretary of State as coming within the provisions of this Ordinance, as provided in section 2, and all interest received by the Government of the Colony of Hong-kong on loans made for the purposes referred to in the preamble to this Ordinance, and all principal moneys received by the Government of the Colony of Hong-kong upon the repayment or recovery of such loans by the Government, shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, exempt from the defence contribution provided for by the Defence Contribution Ordinance, 1901, and all such principal moneys and interest hitherto received by the said Government, or hereafter to be received by the said Government, shall be deducted from the Colonial revenues before the calculation of the sums payable to His Majesty's Government under the said Ordinance.

Exemption from defence contribution.

Ordinance No. 1 of 1901.

Objects and Reasons.

The object of this bill, and the reasons for it, seem to appear sufficiently from the preamble.

J. H. KEMP,
Attorney General.
