WING YUE CHEUNG,
(永裕祥),
16, Wing Wo Street,

Hong Kong, 9th December, 1926.

THE CHINA LIGHT AND POWER
COMPANY (1918), LIMITED.

BY Article 25 of the Articles of Association of the Company, it is provided that if a call upon shares is paid in advance of the due date the Company may pay interest thereon.

In view of the difficult business conditions which have prevailed in the Colony for some time past, the General Managers and Consulting Committee, in the interests of the shareholders generally, have from time to time postponed the date for the payment of the final call upon the new shares.

In the meantime various shareholders have paid the call.

The General Managers propose to pay to these shareholders interest at 7% per annum on the amount so paid until the date when the call finally falls due. After that date these shares will carry dividend, but not until then.

Shareholders are reminded that the Company can only recognize those persons who are entered in its Register, and payment of interest will be made accordingly.

If a sale of the shares takes place after the payment of the call has been made by the seller, and the buyer registers his transfer, interest will be apportioned between the buyer and the seller, unless the seller requests that it be all paid to the buyer.

Hong Kong, 6th December, 1926.
