

Objects and Reasons

The object of this bill is to repeal the existing Ordinance of 1891 which is out of date and to replace it by an Ordinance based on the Bankruptcy Act, 1914, but adapted to local conditions. Its commencement is postponed until the 1st January, 1932, so as to give time for the preparation of the rules which are to be made thereunder. The principal differences between the bill and the statute law now in force in England are shown in the Table of Correspondence. That Table also shows the principal differences between the bill and the present Bankruptcy Ordinance.
