BOTANICAL AND FORESTRY DEPARTMENT.

No. S. 290.—It is hereby notified for general information that plants (Mauritius Palms only) can be hired from the Botanical and Forestry Department on the following conditions :—

1. Application must be made at the office of the Botanical and Forestry Department (junction of Albany and Robinson Roads) one day before the plants are required.
2. Charges will be $8 per hundred, payable in advance, for 4 days, day of issue and day of return each to count as one day. Minimum charge one dollar.
3. After payment at the office of the Botanical and Forestry Department, an Issue Note will be given to the applicant; this Issue Note must be produced and given up at the Loan Plant Compound (junction of Garden and Macdonnell Roads) before plants can be issued.
4. All plants are stored in the Loan Plant Compound, from whence they must be collected and returned by the hirer between the hours of 7 a.m. and 4 p.m.
5. No plants are loaned for more than 4 days; no issues of plants are made on Sundays and holidays.
6. Plants damaged and pots broken will be charged for.
7. The Superintendent, Botanical and Forestry Department, reserves the right to refuse any application for loan of plants and to limit the loan to plants of certain sizes.

H. GREEN,
Superintendent.
