Mr. W. Schofield acted as First Police Magistrate and Coroner from the 10th November to the end of the year.

Mr. S. F. Balfour acted as Second Police Magistrate and Coroner from the 1st January to 25th March.

Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones acted as Second Police Magistrate and Coroner from 1st December to the end of the year.

Mr. W. M. Thomson acted as First Clerk and Magistrate from the 1st February to the end of the year.

The number of cases was 32,597 as compared with 26,162 in 1933.

KOWLOON.

Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones acted as Police Magistrate and Coroner from the 1st January to 14th November.

Mr. E. W. Hamilton acted as Police Magistrate and Coroner from the 15th November to the end of the year.

Mr. J. H. B. Lee acted as First Clerk and Magistrate from the 5th February to the end of the year.

The number of cases was 21,220 as compared with 19,925 in 1933. A small temporary Court Room was erected in the Magistracy compound and opened on 6th September, 1934, for the hearing of cases by the First Clerk and Magistrate. This has done much to relieve the former congestion of cases in the Main Court.

2. Table I shows the expenditure of the two Magistracies for the years 1933 and 1934, including the cost of all officers in the departments who belong to the Cadet, Senior Clerical and Accounting, and Junior Clerical Services.

3. Table II shows the revenue of the two Magistracies for the same year.

4. Table III shows their revenue and expenditure for the last ten years in comparative form.

5. Table IV gives an Abstract of Cases under cognizance of the Magistrates' Courts during the years 1933 and 1934 in comparative form. The number of offenders previously convicted who were sentenced during the year is shown and the number of offenders who were placed under Police Supervision in addition to their sentences is given.

6. Table V is an analysis of the "convicted and sentenced" column in Table IV, showing the penalties inflicted under each of the eight main heads of crime in that table. The number of offenders previously bound over whose bonds have been enforced on committing a breach of the conditions of the bonds is also shown.

7. Table VI is a return of boy juvenile offenders brought before the Hong Kong and Kowloon Magistrates' Courts during the years 1933 and 1934 giving their ages, the offences committed by them and the sentences imposed. A new column is added to show the number of juvenile offenders committed to the Remand Home during 1934.

8. Table VII is a return of girl juvenile offenders, giving information similar to that in table VI.

9. Table VIII gives the number of writs issued from the two Magistracies during the years 1933 and 1934.

10. Table IX is an Abstract of all cases brought before the the Hong Kong and Kowloon Magistrates' Courts during the last ten years.

11. Table X shows the work done by the Magistrates sitting as Coroners.

GENERAL.

12. The Juvenile Offenders Ordinance (Ordinance No. 1 of 1932) was in operation throughout the year, and remand homes for both boys and girls were in use. 1,789 boys and 358 girls came before the courts, of whom 176 boys and 43 girls were discharged, leaving 1,613 boys and 315 girls as the total number convicted. Of these, 954 boys and 263 girls were convicted of hawking offences, which in the case of juveniles almost always means hawking without a licence. The corresponding figures for the previous year are 1,022 and 184.

13. The number of charges and defendants dealt with in Hong Kong and Kowloon in 1934 constitutes a record in the history of the Colony: the total number of defendants was 56,370 as against 48,618 last year. The increase of cases is accounted for entirely by head (g), "offences against public morals and police," the principal increases being under the items of obstruction, traffic, and, in Hong Kong, hawkers' offences. Opium and revenue cases have diminished markedly.

14. To cope with the work it was found necessary to increase the number of magistrates; and during the year officers of the Cadet Service were appointed to the position of Magistrate and First Clerk in both Magistracies.

15. Proceedings were taken under the Extradition Acts against four persons for crimes committed outside the Colony. Of these, one was committed to prison to await the Order of H.E. the Governor and the others were discharged.

16. Summonses under the Married Women (Desertion) Ordinance, 1905, in Hong Kong numbered four as against three in 1933. No order was made. In Kowloon these summonses numbered four as against six in 1933. In one of them an order was made.

W. SCHOFIELD,
First Police Magistrate.

31st March, 1935.
