THE FRIEND OF CHINA, AND HONG-KONG GAZETTE.

VICTORIA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30TH 1843

We beg to inform our readers that it is our intention for the future to publish a summary of the principal events which have occurred in China, upon such occasions as afford a prospect of speedy transit overland for England. We hope that this will be a convenience to our friends here, and save the time which would otherwise be occupied in correspondence. The "HONG-KONG GAZETTE OVERLAND SUMMARY No. 1." will accordingly be published this day at noon, and we request such of our Subscribers as wish for it to send to our office with a written order for the same, as our arrangements do not at present admit of a double delivery in one day. It is our intention to issue the SUMMARY to Subscribers gratis; but extra copies, and copies delivered to non-subscribers will be charged one Rupee each cash.

We regret to be obliged to comment upon the proceedings of the Consul at Amoy, but their tendency is in our opinion so decidedly to discourage the British Shipping interest, that we feel called upon to draw attention to the subject, in the hope that Regulations may be laid down of a somewhat less restrictive nature than those at present enforced by H. B. Majesty's Consul. We may add, that we can vouch for the truth of every particular which we are about to mention.

It appears that a brig of 161 tons burthen arrived in Amoy, and dropped her anchor 24 hours before the Consul hoisted his flag. She was in ballast, and as she had arrived at Amoy previous to the Consul taking up his residence there, hoped to be excused from paying Port charges. The Consul however refused to remit any portion of the amount, and accordingly duty was paid. The Commander however was surprised at finding the charges amount to 92 taels. Now by the scale of charges the amount to be levied is 5 mace per ton; and adding 3 per cent. (the prevailing rate of discount even in the purchase of Sycee and Opium) the charges should have been only 82. 9. 1. On enquiry he was informed that the balance of 9, 0, 9 had been paid to the Chinese as discount! with the exception of $ 1 which was charged for an affidavit which he never took! moreover on requesting a Voucher for the payment, it was refused, the reply being that the Chinese port clearance was sufficient: so that if the owners of the vessel dispute the charge (as they justly may be expected to do) the loss must fall upon the unfortunate Commander.

But this is not all. Some highly respectable Chinese merchants who had been to Singapore, and returned with highly complimentary letters from several of the Merchants there, feeling the superior advantage of shipping in a British Vessel, chartered the above brig for Singapore at a freight of $ 10 per ton. Their cargo was ready, and they had paid the duty to the Mandarins previous to the arrival of the Consul, when to their utter surprise they found themselves called upon under the Treaty to pay duty again! The duty on their goods (Camphor) being high, would not permit of their so doing with any prospect of making a safe speculation, and they requested the Commander of the Vessel to introduce them to the Consul and endeavor to get the charge remitted. They accordingly went, but the Consul on the case being stated, refused (and that too in any thing but an urbane manner) to have any thing to say to it, and even declined interfering with the Mandarins to get a portion of the money previously paid returned. The consequence was that the unfortunate traders were compelled to abandon their speculation, paying nearly $ 300 forfeit to the owners of the Vessel.

We cannot refrain from exclaiming against such policy; we are informed that the Chinese feeling is decidedly in favor of shipping in British Vessels, if they can be protected from paying duties first to the Mandarins and then again through the Consul, and we think the Consul would have only acted up to the spirit of the Treaty had he remonstrated with the Mandarins on the subject. The want of urbanity we are told was strongly commented upon by the Chinese, who contrasted it with their experience at Singapore in terms not very flattering to the newly appointed Officer. The Chinese are very sensitive on these points and a little civility is at no time wasted upon them.

We had intended to notice the hardship of its being compulsory to take a pilot to enter Amoy harbour, when the commanders of our coasters, (who visit the place eight or ten times a year on the average) are quite capable of taking charge of their vessels; also, the impolicy of extending the harbour beyond its former limits some 8 or 10 miles, and above all, the injustice of compelling a vessel entering any harbour on the coast, and neither receiving nor discharging cargo, to pay the port dues, and this perhaps four or five times in as many months. But we must reserve this part of the subject for our next issue.

The notification issued by H. Excellency which appears in our columns, is we think well-timed, and calculated to strengthen the belief of the Chinese Authorities in our desire to carry out the treaty strictly. It is very well for parties to complain of their being restrained from seeing as much of the interior of the country as possible: but the risk of disturbing the present feelings of good will which prevail, must not be incurred for the sake of the gratification of an ill-timed curiosity. Persons must for a time control their desire to explore further, the time will doubtless arrive, when the Chinese will cease to apprehend anything from us, and admit us more freely into the country.

Our elder brother of the Canton Press has (we doubt not with the kindest motives) taken upon himself to set us to rights with regard to our Prices Current. Our brother would increase the obligation under which we lie to him, if instead of vaguely and generally saying, "that our commercial reports not only from Canton but other places are frequently quite wrong" he would specify a few instances. We had given our brother credit for more penetration than to suppose that he would not have perceived where the error in our last week's paper lay. We had thought, that when others here at once perceived that the price current inserted immediately under the Canton news, should have been placed after that from Chusan, our contemporary would not have been misled by his "commercial friends" so far as to suppose that the quotations were intended to represent Canton prices. Nevertheless, we sincerely thank our contemporary for his hint, and he may be assured that we shall not only "take pains" to improve our price current, but also to return the compliment conferred upon us when occasion offers, for which we do not expect to wait long.

SEALED Tenders will be received at this Office until Friday the 1st December at Noon, from such persons as may be willing to Contract for building Barracks at Sywan. Plans and Specifications may be seen at the Office of the Commanding and Superintending Royal Engineer.
