THE FRIEND OF CHINA

AND HONGKONG GAZETTE.

MICTORIA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 27re, 1818.

Monday was the anniversary of the storaging of the heights of Canton by the British troops and Her Majesty's birthday hopening this year mon Sunday, the usual demonstrations were reserved until the following day, thus affording a double cause for public gratulation. The ships of war fired salutes at noon, and in the evening the troops were paraded, and salutes fired by artillery and muskerry, the bands playing the national anthem. His Excellency Sir John Davis, Major General D'Aguilar, and a large number of Uvillians were on the parade ground. In the evening the houses at the foot of Pottinger Street were illuminated.

The arrivals from the north have not furnishd us with any news of importance. At Shanghai trade is dull; the bankrupt Allum has returned to meet his creditors. It is said that the native creditors are dissatisfied, being under the unpression that a preference has been given to foreigners. It is to be hoped that such is not the case; and we presume that it is a mere running root in by greatly claimants. The the case; and we presume that it is a mour got up by greedy claimants. The established customs with reference to bankrupt well known, and we estates are sufficiently well known, and we cannot believe that in this instance they have oannot believe that in this instance they have been departed from.

We do not bear of any further disturbance at Foo chow-for. H. M. Brig Espingle is an chored near the town, and the turnelt has subsided. But for an occasional riot, Foo-chiw-foo would become a secodit Ningpo—we would forget that triva port of trade, on would become a second Ningpo-we twould forget that ure a port of trade.

On the morning of the 28th a respectable to Comprehene belonging to a Buropean firm, was kidnapped by eight robbors and carried what opposite shore. The man had gone to the belongs, and the robbers were doubtless aware that he was a person of respectability, and expected a heavy ransom from his friends. After being gaged and bindfolded, the prisoner was carried off in large beat, such as are used for taxping cargo. They enchored at a village called Chinewan, somewhere about Pilors bay, sear the Capsingmon-passage. The boatwoman who carried the Comprehene to the first way the carried the Comprehene with some men from the saft danks, numbering in all eighteen. They were well armed and asking the boatwoman with the trade of the comprehene with some men from the saft danks, numbering in all eighteen. They were well armed and asking the boatwoman with them to identify the pirate tradit, they proceeded to Pilors bay. The pirate vessel was anchored there, and or closing with her the crew jumped overboard and except. The Comprehene was discovered below and released. We have not had an earlier opportunity of publishing Her Majesty's letters patent appointing commissioners to hold admirally pursicition within the colony of Hongkong. The Commissioners, are the Governor, the Chief Justice, the Military Commander, the Colonial Secretary, the chief Magistrate of police, and flag officers or Captains of ships of war in the harbour. Either of those Commissioners can examine and commit parties charged with piracy. The criminals require to be tried before three of them, of which number the Governor or Chief Justice must be one. The prisoners have the benefit of a trial by Jury.

We confess that we are puzzled by the technical phraseology of the document, denuded of which, we think it provides for a court having admiralty jurisdiction in Hongkong and the neighbouring waters, and that the Commissioners we have named are intrusted with the duty of presiding over the court, not fewer than three being present, including the Governor or Chief Justice, and that the established form of trial is that by Jury.

We have heard parties complain, that ther; was no admiralty jurisdiction in Hongkonge and whether the letters patent fully provide for such a court in all its branches we are at a loss to tell, but will be happy to receive information from those who are more conversant with such subjects.

Taysaam, best $310 -inferior to good fair quality, 200 to 3008. Taysaam, best $330 -common to good 200 to 3008. Stock 1300 bales, and 300 bales, purchased but not shipped Shipments for the season, including the Tomatin, 13.810 bales. The weather has been rather unfavorable for the new crop of silk, which was expected to be in the market about the end of June. Famoures are quoted at $7.10, and tomage searce. The Jeremiah Garnett, New Margard and Old England, were filing up with teas for the home market.

The money market was rather tight, some exchange transactions having taken place at 4s $0$; Sycee bearing a premium of 6 per cent.

CANTON, 2230 MAY 1846.

The Canton market continues in a very depressed state for every description of import. The known difficulties of some of the Native Merchants added to other causes—heavy stocks in the hands of foreign Nerchants, with enormous shipments of foreign Nerchants, with enormous shipments of foreign Nerchants, with enormous shipments of reduce on its way to England,—have materially effected the transactions of the past month.

EXPORTS.

Tea.—The transactions of the month comprise 20 chops of Congou, at 14 talls for very low quality, up to 18 for teas of a fair-commor class. Of Southers, 10 chops have been taken at 18 to 29 tales for common, and 25 talls for good. The market is nearly bare, and the tear remaining are chiefly low qualities of Young Hyson, a few scentised is occuping to the market, but the prices asked check purchases. The musters of Twantays, Young Hyson, Imperial and Gunpowich are good, but the holders must submit to a deduction before buyers will close with them. There are also some of last years green teas in the market, and as the Americans have closed their purchases for the season, they will probably be secured for the English market at reasonable prices.

ENGHANGE—On England is again lower, good Bills having been sold at $3 d. Baring's Credits were sold at 4s 34d previous to the arrival of the mail, but buyers are now rather shy.

Company's accepted bills have been sold at 212 per 1008; at which rate they are in demand.
