GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.

His Excellency SIR JOHN BOWRING, Knight, LL.D., Her Majesty's Plenipotentiary, &c. &c., has directed the for general information, of the following Copy of a Despatch from His Excellency SIR MICHAEL K.C.B., together with its enclosure, addressed by the EARL OF MALMESBURY to the LORDS COMMISSIONERS ADMIRALTY, relative to the unauthorized importation of Goods into Japan.

By Order,

G. W. CAINE.

Superintendency of Trade, Victoria, Hongkong, 18th January, 1859.

Calcutta, AT HONGKONG, 17th January, 1859.

—Herewith I have the honour to transmit, for Your Excellency's information, a Copy of a Letter from the Earl of Malmesbury, Her Secretary of State for Foreign affairs, dated the 24th November last, to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, informing that certain British Merchants in China will endeavour improperly to import Goods, &c., into Japan; and in accordance Malmesbury's wishes Her Majesty's Steam Sloop Inflexible will sail for Jeddo (calling at Shanghai and Nagasaki), in two days to the Japanese Government the opinion of Her Majesty's Government on such illegal traffic, if it should be attempted, after the ratification of the Treaty; and that Her Majesty's Government will not extend their protection to any British may violate the Laws of Japan.
 I request that Your Excellency will be pleased to communicate to the British Merchants in China, the course prescribed to Her Naval Forces in Japan.—I have, &c,

(Signed) M. SEYMOUR,
 Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

SIR JOHN BOWRING, LL.D.,
 Her Majesty's Superintendent of Trade in China, Hongkong.

FOREIGN OFFICE, 24th November, 1858.

—I have the honour to acquaint Your Lordships, that I have been informed that certain British Merchants in China con-immediate despatch to Japan of Vessels laden partly with Goods which, even if the Treaty were ratified, and the trade duly not legally be imported into Japan.

Her Majesty's Government would much regret that the commencement of British intercourse with Japan should be signalized by acts of smuggling and other illegality or violence on the part of British Subjects, which, although they might for the moment be peculiarly beneficial to the parties concerned in them, would tend to check the dispositions of the Japanese Government to enter into friendly intercourse with this country, to paralyze legitimate trade, and to impress the people and Government of Japan with an unfavorable opinion of its British character, which would require a long time to efface.

At all events, it is the duty of Her Majesty's Government to do their utmost to avert any such evil consequences, and I have accordingly to request Your Lordships by to-morrow's Mail, to send instructions to Sir M. Seymour, at once to despatch to Jeddo a Ship of adequate force, and to instruct the Commander of such Ship to inform the Japanese Government that Her Majesty's Government are not privy to any British Subjects carrying on any illicit trade with Japan, if such should be attempted either before or after the exchange of the ratification of the Treaty; but that Her Majesty's Government highly disapproving of such conduct, will not extend their protection to any British Subjects, who may violate the laws of Japan.

The British commanding officer in Japan should also warn the Masters of any British Ships so trading, that they will not be protected from the effects of any such illegal proceedings on their part.

It might also be desirable that Sir M. Seymour should, in the manner which he may judge most suitable, make known to British Subjects in the Chinese Ports and at Hongkong, the course prescribed to Her Majesty's Naval Force in Japan.—I have, &c.,

(Signed,) MALMESBURY.

The LORDS COMMISSIONERS OF ADMIRALTY.
