GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.—No. 1.

The following Bye-Laws under The Public Health Ordinance, 1887, are published for general information.

By Command,

FREDERICK STEWART,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 5th January, 1889.

Bye-Laws made by the Sanitary Board of Hongkong for the compulsory reporting of infectious, contagious or communicable diseases under the provisions of Section 13 of The Public Health Ordinance, 1887, Sub-section 24.

1. The following Bye-Laws refer to Small-pox only.
2. The words "Medical Practitioner" shall include all persons of whatever nationality who practise medicine whether registered or not under Ordinance No. 6 of 1884.
3. If any inmate of any premises be suffering from Small-pox, and if such inmate be under the care of a Medical Practitioner the said Medical Practitioner shall forthwith furnish the Secretary to the Board or the Registrar General with a notification in writing of the name of such inmate and the situation of such premises.
4. If any such inmate be not under the care of a Medical Practitioner, the occupier or keeper of such premises or part of such premises or the nearest male adult relative living on such premises shall on the nature of the disease becoming known to him or on suspicion of the existence in such inmate of any such disease forthwith notify the same to the Secretary to the Board or the Registrar General or the Officer in charge of the nearest Police Station.
5. Such notification shall immediately on receipt thereof be transmitted by whomsoever received to the Secretary to the Board.
6. The Secretary to the Board shall upon application furnish every Medical Practitioner in the Colony, the Registrar General and every Officer in charge of a Police Station with the printed forms of notification to be used.

Hongkong, 20th December, 1888.

WM. EDWARD CROW,
Acting Secretary.
