

comply), at any time during the continuance of the offender in the school, a Magistrate may, on summons to the parent or step-parent or other person liable as aforesaid, examine into his or her ability, and may, if he think fit, make an order or decree on him or her for the payment to the Colonial Treasurer of such weekly sum, not exceeding two dollars per week as to him seems reasonable during the whole or any part of the period for which the offender is liable to be detained in the school.

Every such order or decree may specify the time during which the payment is to be made, or may be until further order.

Every such payment shall go in relief of the charges on Her Majesty's Colonial Treasury.

The Governor may, in his discretion, remit all or any part of any payment so ordered.

Variation of Order.
Ibid. s. 26.

2. Any Magistrate having jurisdiction to make such order or decree may from time to time vary the same as circumstances require, on the application either of the person on whom the order or decree is made, or of the Colonial Treasurer on fourteen days' notice being first given of such application to the Colonial Treasurer or to such person respectively.

Enforcement of penalty.

3. Any order made under the provisions of this Ordinance may be enforced in the same manner, as a fine or pecuniary penalty imposed by a Magistrate upon summary conviction may be enforced under the provisions of Ordinance 8 of 1889.
