DRAFT BILL

ENTITLED

Title. An Ordinance to amend the law relating to the Extradition of Chinese Criminals.

Preamble. WHEREAS by Article XXI. of the Treaty between Her Majesty and the Emperor of China done at Tientsin on the 26th June, 1858, it was agreed and concluded that if criminals, subjects of China, shall take refuge in Hongkong, or on board the British ships there they shall, upon due requisition by the Chinese authorities, be searched for, and on proof of their guilt, be delivered up; and whereas it is expedient to amend the law for the more effective carrying out of the said treaty in relation to the surrender of criminals, subjects of China, who take refuge in Hongkong, or on board the British ships there: Be it enacted by the Governor of Hongkong by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title. 1. This Ordinance may be cited for all purposes as The Chinese Extradition Ordinance, 1889.

2. Ordinances No. 2 of 1850 and No. 2 of 1871 are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not affect anything done or suffered or any proceedings for the surrender of a criminal commenced under the said Ordinances or either of them before the coming into operation of this Ordinance and such proceedings may be completed and the criminal surrendered as if this Ordinance had not come into operation.

Repeal.

3. In this Ordinance unless repugnant to or inconsistent with the context the term Extradition Crime shall mean a crime which if committed in the Colony would be one of the crimes mentioned in the First Schedule hereto and the term Fugitive Criminal shall mean any subject of China accused of an extradition crime committed within the jurisdiction of China or on board a Chinese ship on the High Seas, who is or is suspected of being in Hongkong or on board a British ship there.

Interpretation.

All crimes jure gentium.

The crimes mentioned in the First Schedule to this Ordinance shall be construed according to the law in force in the Colony at the date of the alleged crime.

4. The provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to the surrender of criminals under any future arrangement that may be made by Her Majesty with the Emperor of China with respect to the surrender of fugitive criminals, as well as to their surrender under any Treaty in force at the coming into operation of this Ordinance.

Application of Ordinance.

5. The following restrictions shall be observed with respect to the surrender of fugitive criminals:—

Restrictions on surrender.

(1.) A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character or if he prove to the satisfaction of the Magistrate, or of a judge of the Supreme Court, if brought before the Court on a writ of Habeas Corpus, or of the Governor that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character or for an offence which is not an extradition crime.

(2.) A fugitive criminal, who has been accused of an offence within British Jurisdiction not being an offence for which his surrender is demanded, or who is undergoing sentence under any conviction in the Colony, shall not be surrendered until after he has been discharged whether by acquittal or on expiration of his sentence or otherwise.

(3.) A fugitive criminal shall not in any case be surrendered unless an engagement is given by the Chinese Government that he shall not until he has been restored or had an opportunity of returning to Her Majesty's Dominions be detained or tried in China for any offence committed before his surrender other than the extradition crime on which the surrender is demanded.

6. Every fugitive criminal, who is in Hongkong, shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered in manner provided by this Ordinance, whether the crime in respect of which the surrender is demanded was committed before or after the passing of this Ordinance, and whether there is or is not any concurrent jurisdiction in any Court in the Colony over that crime.

Liability to be surrendered.

7. Whenever a requisition for a surrender of a fugitive criminal, who is in, or suspected of being in Hongkong, is made to the Governor by some officer of the Chinese Government, the Governor may, by order under his hand and seal, signify to a Magistrate that such requisition has been made, and require him to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal.

Requisition to the Governor may be followed by order to Magistrate for warrant of apprehension.

8. A Magistrate, on receipt of the said order, shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of the fugitive criminal, or, if the fugitive criminal be already in custody shall issue his order to all necessary persons to bring the fugitive criminal before him to be dealt with according to this Ordinance.

Duties of a Magistrate upon receipt of such order.

9. A Magistrate may also issue his warrant for the apprehension of a fugitive criminal on such information or complaint as would, in his opinion, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed in the Colony.

Magistrate may also issue warrant as in ordinary cases.

A fugitive criminal apprehended on a warrant so issued shall be discharged by the Magistrate, unless the Magistrate within such time as, with reference to the circumstances of the case, he shall think reasonable, receives from the Governor an order signifying that a requisition has been made for the surrender of such fugitive criminal.

Hearing of the case and evidence of crime being political.

10. When a fugitive criminal is brought before a Magistrate, he shall hear the case in the same manner, and have the same jurisdiction and powers, as nearly as may be, as if the prisoner were brought before him charged with an indictable offence committed in the Colony.

The Magistrate shall receive any evidence which may be tendered to show that the crime of which the prisoner is accused, is an offence of a political character, or is not an extradition crime.

Committal to prison.

11. If at the hearing before a Magistrate such evidence is produced as would subject to the provisions of this Ordinance justify the committal of the fugitive criminal for trial at the Supreme Court if the crime of which he is accused had been committed in the Colony, the Magistrate shall commit him to Victoria Gaol to await the further order of the Governor but otherwise shall order him to be discharged.

If the Magistrate commits the fugitive criminal to Victoria Gaol, he shall thereupon inform the fugitive criminal that he will not be surrendered until after the expiration of fifteen days from the date of such committal and that he has a right to apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of Habeas Corpus, and such Magistrate shall forthwith send to the Governor the depositions and other evidence in the case together with such report thereon as he thinks fit.

Notice to Crown Solicitor before discharge.

12. Before ordering a fugitive criminal to be discharged the Magistrate shall cause notice of his intention to make such order to be served on the Crown Solicitor.

Warrant of surrender when to be signed.

13. Upon the expiration of fifteen days from the date of the Magistrate's order of committal or if a writ of Habeas Corpus has been issued and if upon the return to the writ the Supreme Court has not discharged the fugitive criminal, immediately after the decision of the Court, or after such further period in either case as the Governor may allow the Governor may, by warrant under his hand and seal, order the fugitive criminal to be surrendered to such person as the Governor considers to be authorized to receive him on behalf of the Chinese authorities and the fugitive criminal shall be surrendered accordingly.

If the fugitive criminal while in the Colony escapes out of any custody into which he has been delivered in pursuance of a Magistrate's warrant as aforesaid it shall be lawful for any police officer or constable to take him without warrant and to restore him to the custody from which he has escaped, and for the person from whose custody the fugitive criminal has escaped to retake him or receive him from such police officer or constable and to hold him at all times as upon the original warrant.

Discharge of fugitive criminal.

14. Except where any proceedings are actually pending upon a writ of Habeas Corpus before the Supreme Court and in such case with the concurrence in writing of the Judge having cognizance thereof, the Governor may at any time by order under his hand and seal discharge a fugitive criminal from custody.

Discharge if not surrendered within two months or on application after decision upon Habeas corpus to a judge upon notice to the Crown.

15. If a fugitive criminal who has been committed to prison under this Ordinance to await the order of the Governor is not surrendered and conveyed out of the Colony within two months after such committal, or if a writ of Habeas Corpus has issued, and upon the return of the writ the fugitive criminal has not been discharged any Judge of the Supreme Court may upon application made to him by or on behalf of the fugitive criminal and upon proof that reasonable notice of the intention to make such application has been given to the Crown Solicitor, order the fugitive criminal to be discharged out of custody unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary.

Depositions, oaths, &c., taken in China.

16. Depositions or statements on oath or affirmations taken in China and copies thereof shall if duly authenticated be received in evidence in proceedings under this Ordinance. Such depositions statements or affirmations and copies thereof shall be deemed to be duly authenticated for the purpose of this Ordinance if they purport to be certified under the hand of the Judge Magistrate or Officer before whom they were taken to be the original depositions statements or affirmations or to be true copies thereof as the case may require and if they are sealed with the official seal of some Officer of State in China and all Courts in the Colony shall for the purposes of this Ordinance take judicial notice of such seal and shall admit the documents so authenticated by it without further proof.

17. Every person who is accused or convicted of having counselled procured commanded aided or abetted the commission of any extradition crime or of being accessory before the fact to any extradition crime shall be deemed for the purposes of this Ordinance to be accused or convicted of having committed such crime and shall be liable to be apprehended and surrendered accordingly.

Aid and abettors in extradition crimes.

18. If any suit or action be brought against a Magistrate Superintendent of the Victoria Gaol, Gaoler Police Officer, Constable or any other person for anything done under or in obedience to any warrant or order issued under the provisions of this Ordinance, the proof of such warrant or order shall be a sufficient answer to such suit or action, and the defendant on such proof as aforesaid shall be entitled to a verdict or judgment accordingly and shall also be entitled to all costs of suit.

Protection of Magistrate and others acting under warrant.

19. The forms in the second schedule hereto or forms to the like effect with such variations and additions as circumstances require may be used for the purposes therein indicated and according to the directions therein contained and instruments in these forms shall (as regards the form thereof) be valid and sufficient.

Forms.

20. This Ordinance shall not come into operation unless and until the Officer Administering the Government notifies by Proclamation that it is Her Majesty's pleasure not to disallow the same; and thereafter it shall come into operation on such day as the Officer Administering the Government shall notify by the same or any other proclamation.

Suspending clause.
