GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.—No. 272.

The subjoined Regulations for Government Scholarships for the study of Law, Medicine, or Civil Engineering in the United Kingdom, have been approved by the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

By Command,

FREDERICK STEWART,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 15th June, 1889.

Regulations for Government Scholarships for the Study of Law, Medicine, or Civil Engineering, in the United Kingdom.

Approved by H.C. 516 of 24 June 88

1. The Government of Hongkong offers, for the study of Law, Medicine, or Civil Engineering in the United Kingdom, two Scholarships of £200 (two hundred pounds) each, per annum, for four years, to scholars of any Public School, recognized as such by the Governor, in the Colony of Hongkong, on the following conditions:—

2. One Scholarship will be awarded in each alternate year.

3. The holder of a Scholarship can select the Collegiate course he wishes to follow or the Institution where he is to study, subject to the approval of the Governor or the Secretary of State for the Colonies, but King's College, London, is recommended as the best suited for finishing the education of boys and for beginning the course of study required by men in the same establishment.

4. The Scholarships will be awarded, after competitive examination, to the Candidate who obtains the highest marks, but subject to the restrictions mentioned below in paragraphs 5, 6, and 7.

CANDIDATES.

5. The Candidates will be scholars, previously approved by the Governor, from any recognized Public School in the Colony of Hongkong, and will be required to bring the following certificates from the Head Master of the respective School:—

(a.) Certificate of good moral character.

(b.) Certificate of age. Candidates must not exceed 20 years, nor be below 17 years.

(c.) Certificates stating that they have been scholars, for at least the three (3) years last past previous to the Examination, at the School that presents them or at any two of the Public Schools recognized by the Governor.

6. Every Candidate will be required to undergo a Medical Examination with a view to ascertaining that he is in a sound state of health.

7. The successful Candidate will be required.

(a.) To proceed to England within two months of his election.

(b.) On his arrival there to report himself to the Colonial Office as having entered his name at the College or Institution, approved by the Governor or Secretary of State, forwarding in proof thereof a letter from the Principal.

(c.) To forward quarterly to the Crown Agents for the Colonies a certificate of good conduct and proficiency in study from the Principal or Head, upon receipt of which the quarterly instalment of his Scholarship will be paid to him.

8. The holder of the Scholarship will cease to be entitled to draw any money, if he fail in any of these requirements.

9. Passage will be paid to England by the Government, and in special cases, where the Headmaster certifies it to be absolutely necessary, an advance of $150 will be made for purposes of outfit, but the whole amount so advanced for outfit must be repaid through the Crown Agents, in quarterly instalments, during the first year of the Scholarship.

10. The holder of a Scholarship will also, ~~within four years after its expiration~~, be granted a free return passage to the Colony, ~~if his conduct and the manner of spending his time shall have met with the approval of the Secretary of State.~~

11. The holder of the Scholarship will not be allowed to remove to another College or Institution ~~or to enter any situation whatever during the tenure of his Scholarship without the permission of the Secretary of State.~~

EXAMINATION.

12. The time of examination will be within the last fourteen days of the month of October.

13. Due notice of the day and hour will be given in the Government Gazette.

EXAMINERS.

14. The Examiners will be the Syndicate of the University of Cambridge.

15. The Inspector of Schools will act as local Presiding Examiner, and may associate with himself for the purpose such person or persons as may be approved by the Governor.

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.—No. 273.

The following is published for general information.

By Command,

FREDERICK STEWART,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 15th June, 1889.

CHAPTER 3.

An Act to provide, during twelve months, for the Discipline and Regulation of the Army. A.D. 1889.

[11th April 1889.]

WHEREAS the raising or keeping of a standing army within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in time of peace, unless it be with the consent of Parliament, is against law :

And whereas it is adjudged necessary by Her Majesty and this present Parliament, that a body of forces should be continued for the safety of the United Kingdom and the defence of the possessions of Her Majesty's Crown, and that the whole number of such forces should consist of one hundred and fifty-two thousand two hundred and eighty-two men, including those to be employed at the depôts in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland for the training of recruits for service at home and abroad, but exclusive of the numbers actually serving within Her Majesty's Indian possessions:

And whereas it is also judged necessary for the safety of the United Kingdom, and the defence of the possessions of this realm, that a body of Royal Marine forces should be employed in Her Majesty's fleet and naval service, under the direction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid:

And whereas the said marine forces may frequently be quartered or be on shore, or sent to do duty or be on board transport ships or vessels, merchant ships or vessels, or other ships or vessels, or they may be under other circumstances in which they will not be subject to the laws relating to the government of Her Majesty's forces by sea:

And whereas no man can be forejudged of life or limb, or subjected in time of peace to any kind of punishment within this realm by martial law, or in any other manner than by the judgment of his peers and according to the known and established laws of this realm; yet nevertheless it being requisite, for the retaining all the before-mentioned forces, and other persons subject to military law, in their duty, that an exact discipline be observed, and that persons belonging to the said forces who mutiny or stir up sedition, or desert Her Majesty's service, or are guilty of crimes and offences to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, be brought to a more exemplary and speedy punishment than the usual forms of the law will allow :

And whereas the Army Act, 1881, will expire in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine on the following days:

- (a.) In the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man, on the thirtieth day of April; and
- (b.) Elsewhere in Europe, inclusive of Malta, also in the West Indies and America, on the thirty-first day of July; and
- (c.) Elsewhere, whether within or without Her Majesty's dominions, on the thirty-first day of December:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Army (Annual) Act, 1889.

44 & 45 Vict.
c. 58.
