GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.—No. 399.

The following Finding of the Marine Court respecting the conduct of CLEMENT YOUNG, 1st Mate of the British Barque Omega, is published for general information.

By Command,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 21st September, 1889.

ARATHOON SETH,
for the Colonial Secretary.

FINDING.

The Court having regard to the circumstances before it finds:—

That the conduct of CLEMENT YOUNG, 1st Mate of the British Barque Omega, 63,881 of Shanghai, towards the Master, ARTHUR VERE BROWN, has been disrespectful, and that he left his duty without proper cause; but, as the evidence is conflicting and inadequate as to the assault, they are not prepared to deal with his Certificate, but they direct that he be discharged from the ship.

The Court is also of opinion that the Master was wanting in judgment in going to the Mate's cabin, and that thereby the disturbance was caused, and he is cautioned to be more careful in future.

Given under our hands at Hongkong, this 16th day of September, 1889.

R. MURRAY RUMSEY, Ret. Com., R.N.,
President of the Court.

J. W. MCFARLANE, Navg. Lieut., R.N.
