THE TRADE MARKS ORDINANCE, 1898.

Application for Registration of Trade Marks.

NOTICE is hereby given that THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY, carrying on business at Victoria, in the Colony of Hongkong, and elsewhere, as Tobacco Merchants, have, on the 22nd day of September, 1900, applied for the registration in Hongkong in the Register of Trade Marks of the following Trade Marks:—

1. The distinctive device of a Railway Engine issuing out of a tunnel and drawing a train of cars. Above this device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed the word "Railway", and underneath the said device appears the name of the said "The American Tobacco Company."
2. The distinctive device of a man in a knickerbocker suit riding a diamond framed safety bicycle and smoking a cigarette. Above the said device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut, or embossed the words "Cycle Cigarettes", and underneath the said device appears the name of the said "The American Tobacco Company." This device is depicted on the front of the label covering the package in which the Cigarettes are packed. In combination with the device above described and depicted on the back of the label covering the package in which the said Cigarettes are packed appears the distinctive device of a woman dressed in a Rational costume riding a diamond framed safety bicycle, and underneath all the above appears the name of the said "The American Tobacco Company."
3. The distinctive device of an Eagle with outstretched wings standing with outstretched talons on the top of the facsimile of a section of a globe representing the world. This device is depicted on the left-hand side of the label covering the package in which the special tobacco is packed. In combination with this device and on the right-hand side of the said label is depicted the device of a head and shoulders of a Red Indian with a head decoration of feathers and in full war dress. Round the head appears a scroll, two stars being depicted at the top of the scroll one on each side, and at the bottom of the scroll and immediately in the centre is depicted another star.
4. On the front of the label covering the package in which the special tobacco, viz., "Bright Golden Birdseye" is packed is depicted the distinctive device of a Railway Engine drawing a train of cars passing a signal post. Above this device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut, or embossed the word "Railroad," and underneath the said device appears the name of the said "The American Tobacco Company." In combination with the device above described is depicted, on the left-hand side of the label covering the package in which the said special tobacco, viz., "Bright Golden Birdseye" is packed, the distinctive of an Eagle with outstretched wings standing with outstretched talons on the top of the facsimile of a section of a globe representing the world. In combination with the above described devices and on the right-hand side of the label covering the package in which as aforesaid the special tobacco is packed is depicted the device of a head and shoulders of a Red Indian with a head decoration of feathers and in full war dress. Above this device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut, or embossed the word "Railroad."

5. The distinctive device of a Turkish Fez. Above the said device appear the words "Sweet Caporal" printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut, or embossed on a back ground which depicts the rays of the sun; underneath the said device appears the name "Kinney Bros." and underneath all the above appear the name of the said "The American Tobacco Company" Successor; in the name of THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY, who claim to be the proprietors thereof.

The said Trade Marks have been used by the applicants for many years in respect of the following goods:—

Unmanufactured and manufactured tobacco of all kinds, cigarettes, smoking tobacco, snuffs, cheroots and cigars in Class 45.

Facsimiles of the said Trade Marks can be seen at the Office of the Colonial Secretary of Hongkong, and also at the Office of the undersigned.

Dated the 6th day of October, 1900.
