1. The distinctive device of half of a Star surrounded by numerous small stars which form a semi-circle. Above the said device are printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed the words "Golden Light", and under the said device are printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed, the words "Long Cut Virginia Smoking". Underneath all the above appear the names "W. M. S. KIMBALL & Co., The American Tobacco Co." Successor.
2. In combination with the undermentioned device and on the front of the label appears the distinctive device of a Diamond having on its right and left sides a stem of leaves. Within the diamond is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed the letters A.T.C. Underneath the device appears the name of The American Tobacco Co. In combination with the above device and on the back of the label is depicted a circle within which is the device of the head and shoulders of a Red Indian in full war paint and dress and with a head decoration of feathers. Round the circle is depicted the rays of the sun.

3. In combination with the undermentioned device and on the front of the label appears the distinctive device of an aged man dressed in ragged clothes with long white hair hanging down over his stooped shoulders. He is depicted walking in a field with a staff in his left hand and with his right hand out-stretched. In the left pocket of his ragged coat is a bottle, and on his back is hanging a satchel suspended by a strap. The word "Old" appears in front of his forehead and the word "Rip" appears at the back of his head, and underneath the word "Old" appear the words "Long Cut", at the bottom of the label appears the name of The American Tobacco Co., Successor to ALLEN & GINTER. In combination with the above device is depicted in a circle the head and part of the shoulder of a man wearing a slouch hat and smoking a cigarette, a fancy device surrounds the circle.
  4. In combination with the undermentioned device and on the front of the label is depicted the distinctive device of a Stock Exchange tape registering machine standing on a table inside a square. Above the said device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed the words "Preferred Stock" and underneath the said device is the name of the Company "The American Tobacco Co." In combination with the said device and on the back of the label is depicted the same device inside a circle and above the said device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed the words "Preferred Stock."
  5. In combination with the undermentioned device and on the front of the label appears the device of the facsimile of the seal of the State of North Carolina consisting of two women in Grecian costume. One woman is sitting down and is holding in her hand a scroll of manuscript together with a rod upon which a red cap is suspended. In front of her and with her two arms and right leg bare is standing a woman leaning with her right arm upon a large shell. She has her left arm out-stretched and in her left hand is a leaf of tobacco. Above the said device is printed, stamped, painted, impressed, branded, stencilled, written, drawn, cut or embossed the words "Seal of North Carolina."
