

GOVERNMENT NOTIFICATION.—No. 191.

The following Order of His Majesty the King in Council, is published.

By Command,

J. H. STEWART LOCKHART,
Colonial Secretary.

Colonial Secretary's Office, Hongkong, 20th March, 1902.

AT THE COURT AT ST. JAMES'S,

The 4th day of November, 1901.

PRESENT,

THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

LORD PRESIDENT

SIR HENRY DE VILLIERS

LORD GEORGE HAMILTON

LORD JUSTICE MATHEW

LORD JAMES OF HEREFORD

LORD JUSTICE COZENS-HARDY.

WHEREAS by the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, it is enacted that where as respects a Superior Court in a British Possession His Majesty the King in Council is satisfied on the report of a Secretary of State :—

- (a) that the regulations respecting the admission of persons to be solicitors of that Superior Court are such as to secure that those solicitors possess proper qualifications and competency ; and
- (b) that by the law of the British Possession the solicitors of the Supreme Court will be admitted to be solicitors of the Superior Court in the Possession on terms as favourable as those on which it is proposed to admit solicitors of that Superior Court in pursuance of the said Act to be solicitors of the Supreme Court ;

His Majesty in Council may order that the said Act shall apply and the same shall accordingly apply to the said Superior Court and British Possession, subject to any exceptions, conditions, and modifications specified in the Order.

And whereas by the said Act it is further provided that His Majesty in Council by the same or any subsequent Order may as respects the Court and British Possession named in the Order provide for all matters authorised by the said Act to be prescribed, and for all matters appearing to His Majesty to be necessary or proper for giving effect to the Order and to the said Act and that an Order in Council applying the Act to a Court in a British Possession may provide that solicitors of that Court may be admitted by virtue of the said Act to be solicitors in any part of the United Kingdom, namely, England, Scotland or Ireland, or in two or one of those parts only.

And whereas application has been made by the Governor of the Colony of Hongkong that the said Act may be applied to that Colony.

And whereas His Majesty in Council on the report of the Secretary of State for the Colonies is satisfied that the regulations respecting the admission of persons to be solicitors of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hongkong are such as to secure that those solicitors possess proper qualifications and competency and that by the law of the Colony of Hongkong the solicitors of the Supreme Court in England and Ireland and Law Agents in Scotland will be admitted to be solicitors of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hongkong on terms as favourable as those on which it is proposed to admit solicitors of that Court in pursuance of the said Act to be solicitors of the Supreme Court.

NOW THEREFORE His Majesty in pursuance of the said recited Act and in execution of the powers thereby in His Majesty vested is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to Order and it is hereby Ordered that the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, shall apply to the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hongkong and to the Colony of Hongkong and that solicitors of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Hongkong may be admitted by virtue of the said Act to be solicitors in England and in Ireland, and Law Agents in Scotland subject to the conditions herein-after specified.

(1.) A solicitor of the said Supreme Court of the Colony of Hongkong (herein-after called the applicant) who, having been in practice before such Court for not less than 3 years, is desirous of being admitted to be a solicitor of the Supreme Court in England or Ireland or a Law Agent in Scotland shall be a male British subject.

(2.) The applicant shall, four calendar months at least before the first day of the month in which he proposes to be admitted, leave with the Registrar of Solicitors or in the case of Scotland with the Registrar of Law Agents his original certificate of admission in the said Supreme Court of the said Colony together with

- (a) a certificate from the authority of the said Colony in whose custody the roll of the solicitors of the said Court is kept stating that his name is still upon the roll and has never been removed therefrom and that no order has ever been made directing him to be suspended from practising his profession
- (b) one or more certificates of fitness and character signed by two resident practising solicitors of at least five years standing in the said Court and by at least one of the Judges or officers next in rank of such Court
- (c) a statutory declaration in terms of or to the effect of that set out in the Schedule (A) hereunto annexed.

(3.) The leaving of the before-mentioned documents shall be equivalent to notice of intention to apply for admission within the meaning of the Acts regulating the admission of solicitors in England and Ireland respectively.

(4.) A certificate under the hand of the Registrar of Solicitors that the applicant has complied with the provisions of the Colonial Solicitors Act, 1900, and of this Order, shall be equivalent to the certificate of his having passed the Final Examination required in England and Ireland respectively.

(5.) The application for admission to be a solicitor in England shall be made to the Master of the Rolls and for the like admission in Ireland to the Lord Chancellor of Ireland.

(6.) The applicant in England or Ireland shall not be required to pass any examination either before or after making such application.

(7.) The admission of the applicant as a solicitor in England or Ireland shall be stamped with the stamps required to be impressed on the admission of solicitors in England and Ireland respectively, and shall be impressed with such further stamp as shall together with the amount of stamps paid on articles of clerkship and admission in the Colony of Hongkong (such amount being certified by a Judge of the Supreme Court of the said Colony in the form set out in the Schedule (B) hereunto annexed) be equal in amount to the sum payable on articles of clerkship in England and Ireland respectively.

(8.) The admission of the applicant as a Law Agent in Scotland shall be stamped with such stamp as shall, together with the amount of stamps paid on Articles of Clerkship and admission in the Colony of Hongkong (such amount being certified by a judge of the Supreme Court of the said Colony in the form set out in the Schedule (B) hereunto annexed)—be equal to the stamps required to be impressed on the Articles of Clerkship and admission of Law Agents in Scotland.

(9.) The following fees shall be paid by the applicant in England and Ireland respectively:—
