

And whereas, by Proclamation dated the 12th day of November, 1900, such exportation and carriage coastwise were prohibited for a further period of six months from and including the 28th day of November, 1900:

And whereas, by Proclamation dated the 13th day of May, 1901, such exportation and carriage coastwise were prohibited for a further period of six months from and including the 28th day of May, 1901:

And whereas, by Proclamation dated the 5th day of December, 1901, such exportation and carriage coastwise were prohibited for a further period of six months, from and including the 28th day of November, 1901: and whereas, I have determined, with the advice of the Executive Council of this Colony, that it is expedient to further continue and extend such prohibition for the period hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, I, Major-General Sir WILLIAM JULIUS GASCOIGNE, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, the Officer for the time being Administering the Government, Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of Hongkong and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of this Colony, do, by this Proclamation, prohibit for a further period of six months from and including the 28th day of May, 1902, either to be exported from the Colony of Hongkong, or to be carried coastwise within the said Colony, Arms, Ammunition, Gunpowder, and Military and Naval Stores, and any articles which I may judge capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of Military or Naval Stores, or any or either of such Arms, Ammunition, Gunpowder, Stores, Goods or Articles respectively, unless this Proclamation shall, in the meantime, be revoked, or unless permission shall have been obtained under Ordinance No. 3 of 1884.
