RULES

Made by the Officer Administering the Government in Council under section 3 of Ordinance 12 of 1899, this 3rd day of June, 1902.

LIQUOR LICENCES IN THE NEW TERRITORIES
EXCEPTING NEW KOWLOON.

1. No person shall sell or permit to be sold any Chinese or European Wines or Spirits, and no person shall distil or cause to be distilled any Spirits in the New Territories excepting New Kowloon, unless:—

- (a.) Such person takes out an appropriate licence for the same in the form referred to in these rules; and
- (b.) Such licence is duly paid for; and
- (c.) The conditions on such licence are complied with.

The expression "New Territories" and "New Kowloon" which are used in this rule have respectively the meanings which are assigned to them by section 2 of Ordinance 30 of 1900.

2. Such licences shall be granted by the Colonial Secretary, and shall be in the forms and shall contain the conditions which are respectively set forth in Schedules A, B, C to these rules, and shall expire on the 17th day of April in each year.
