No. 2 OF 1910.

PROHIBITION OF THE IMPORTATION AND MANUFACTURE OF COCAINE.

Whereas His Britannic Majesty's Government have agreed with the Chinese Government that it is desirable to regulate the importation and manufacture of cocaine into and in China;

And whereas measures for the said regulations have been agreed to by all other treaty Powers:

It is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. On and after December 1st, 1910, any British subject importing into China cocaine or instruments for the injection of cocaine, except in accordance with the conditions laid down in article 11 of the treaty of the 5th September, 1902, for the importation of morphia, or any British subject manufacturing in China cocaine or instruments for the injection of cocaine, shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50*l.*, or to imprisonment to any term not exceeding three months, or to both such punishments, and the cocaine and the instruments for the injection of cocaine may be declared to be forfeited.
2. These regulations may be cited as "The Cocaine Prohibition Regulations".
