

No. 136.

Additional Regulation made by the Governor-in-Council under Section 23 (11) of the Waterworks Ordinance, 1903, (Ordinance No. 16 of 1903), this 4th day of May, 1911.

There shall be added to the Waterworks Regulations published in the Gazette on the 9th day of October, 1903, and on pages 505 to 513 of the Regulations of Hongkong, 1910, the following additional regulation:—

“Fishing.”

41. The use of nets or other appliances, including rods and lines, for taking fish, and the use of any dynamite or other explosive substance or any poisonous, stupefying or noxious substance to catch or destroy fish in the reservoirs is strictly prohibited, provided always that permission to fish with rod and line may be granted by licence by the Water Authority; such licence must be produced when demanded by any Police Officer or Constable or by any waterworks official or custodian.”

No. 137.

Further Regulations made by the Governor-in-Council under Section 3 of the Live Stock Import and Export Regulation Ordinance, 1903, (Ordinance No. 15 of 1903), in respect to the import and export of cattle and other live stock to and from the Colony, this 4th day of May, 1911.

The following Regulations shall be added to the Regulations published on pages 500 and 501 of the Regulations of Hongkong, 1910, and to the Regulation published in the Gazette on the 30th day of April, 1910:—

- “10. Cattle.—Each animal conveyed in any vessel shall, except as hereinafter provided, have not less than 14 square feet of deck space allotted: footholds shall be provided to prevent slipping: the animals shall stand athwartships: they shall be secured by a halter and shall not be tied by the nose.

Provided that in the case of cattle under 2 years of age the deck space allotted shall be 14 square feet for every 2 such cattle.

11. Sheep and Goats shall be carried in any vessel in substantially built pens containing not more than 40 in each pen: 3 square feet shall be allowed per head.
12. Pigs.—Not more than 40 pigs in any vessel shall be placed in a pen: 3 square feet shall be allowed per head, 2 pigs under 80 lbs. live weight to count as one, 3 under 50 lbs. live weight to count as one.

When carried in crates a separate crate shall be assigned to each pig. Crates shall be stacked 2 deep only; between each pile of crates an alleyway shall be left 18 inches wide to allow food and water to be given; the pigs' heads shall face the alleyway on either side. Crates shall be made either of bamboo with dunnage mats at the bottom strong enough to prevent a pig getting its leg through, or else of round rattan.

13. Poultry.—The baskets or crates in which poultry are carried are to be supplied with mats or to be otherwise so constructed as to prevent the poultry getting their legs through.
14. The Master of every vessel shall (in addition to the actual offender) be deemed to be guilty of any contravention of these Regulations which may occur while he is on board his ship and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
15. For the purpose of these Regulations the term “vessel” means any ship, junk or boat of any kind whatever whether propelled by steam, electricity, sails or oars.”
