

5. The name and address of every case of plague, small-pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, typhus fever, enteric fever, relapsing fever, paratyphoid fever or puerperal fever shall be reported by the practitioner without delay to the Medical Officer of Health or to an Assistant Medical Officer of Health, and in the case of Chinese patients a notification shall be sent at the same time by the practitioner to the nearest Chinese Public Dispensary.

6. In all cases of doubt as to whether a patient is suffering from an infectious disease the practitioner shall consult the Medical Officer of Health or an Assistant Medical Officer of Health before notifying the case to the nearest Chinese Public Dispensary.

7. Cases of a medico-legal nature which may possibly involve a charge of assault, murder or attempted suicide, and accidents likely to result in death, shall be sent if possible to a Public Hospital, and failing that the practitioner shall consult with a registered medical practitioner or with a Government Medical Officer.

8. A weekly return of all certificates of the cause of death issued by each person authorised by the Governor to sign such certificates shall be forwarded by him to the Medical Officer of Health or in Kowloon to the Assistant Medical Officer of Health and the entries in these returns must correspond exactly with the wording of the certificates issued with which they will be compared.
