FINDING.

We find that the charges against Mr. FRASER, 3rd Mate, S.S. Haimun, Official No. 95,869, the number of whose certificate of competency as 1st Mate is 037,373 of Liverpool, are proved, and taking into consideration that this officer's certificate was suspended by a Marine Court in Hongkong for drunkenness in March, 1914, for one year, and from this and the evidence now given he appears a confirmed drunkard and as such, with a certificate of competency, is a menace to shipping, we therefore order that his certificate be suspended for two years and that before such certificate be returned, a certificate of sobriety from the Master or Masters with whom he has served be produced to the Board of Trade for six months immediately preceding the expiration of suspension.

(Signed) C. W. BECKWITH, Commander, R.N.,
Stipendiary Magistrate and President of the Court.
