F. H. MAY,
Governor.

31st December, 1915.

An Ordinance to amend further the Tramway Ordinance, 1902.

[31st December, 1915.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hongkong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Short title and construction.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Tramway Amendment Ordinance, 1915, and shall be read and construed as one with the Tramway Ordinance, 1902, hereinafter called the Principal Ordinance and with the Tramway Amendment Ordinance, 1913, and the said Ordinances and this Ordinance may be cited together as the Tramway Ordinances, 1902-1915.

2. Section 36 of the Principal Ordinance is amended as follows :—

Amendment of Ordinance No. 10 of 1902, s. 36.

- (a.) By the substitution of the figures "15" for the figures "10" in the fifteenth line thereof.
- (b.) By the substitution of the figures "20" for the figures "15" in the sixteenth line thereof.
- (c.) By the repeal of the following words in the eighteenth to the twenty-second lines thereof :—

"Provided also that, as regards Sections Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 the Governor-in-Council may, if he shall think fit to do so, authorise the maximum rate of speed to be increased to a rate not exceeding the rate of 12 miles an hour."

- (d.) By the insertion of the words "or such period less than one month as the Governor-in-Council may agree to" between the word "made" and the word "the" in the thirty-first line thereof.
- (e.) By the substitution of a comma for the full stop in the thirty-seventh line thereof, and the addition of the words "or within such shorter period after their publication in the Gazette as the Governor-in-Council may order" at the end of the said section.

3. Section 48 of the Principal Ordinance is amended by the deletion of the words "and outside" in the twenty-first and twenty-second lines thereof.

Amendment of Ordinance No. 10 of 1902, s. 48.

4. Section 51 of the Principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Repeal of Ordinance No. 10 of 1902, s. 51, and substitution of new section.

"51. The company shall not be bound to find accommodation for any passenger in or on any car in or on which the accommodation is fully taken up, notwithstanding that such passenger may have purchased a ticket entitling him to travel upon the tramway."

5. Section 52 of the Principal Ordinance is repealed.

Repeal of Ordinance No. 10 of 1902, s. 52.

6. Section 60 of the Principal Ordinance is repealed and the following section is substituted therefor :—

Repeal of Ordinance No. 10 of 1902, s. 60, and substitution of new section.

"Power to detain persons who commit offences."

"60. It shall be lawful for any officer or servant of the company, and for any person called by him to his assistance, to seize any person whom such officer or servant may have reasonable grounds for believing to have committed any offence against this Ordinance or against any rule made thereunder, and to detain such person until he can be handed over to a police officer, and any police officer to whom any person is so handed over shall detain any such person until he can conveniently be brought before a magistrate, provided that it shall be lawful for any police officer in his discretion to release such person upon being furnished by such person with his true name and true address in the Colony."

HONGKONG.

No. 35 OF 1915.

I assent to this Ordinance.

F. H. MAY,
Governor.

31st December, 1915.

An Ordinance to amend the Deportation Ordinances, 1912-1914.

[31st December, 1915.]

BE it enacted by the Governor of Hongkong, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

Short title and construction.

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the Deportation Ordinance, 1915, and shall be read construed as one with the Deportation Ordinances, 1912-1914, and the said Ordinances and this Ordinance may be cited together as the Deportation Ordinances, 1912-1915.

Power to order that a deportee shall depart by a particular ship.

2.—(1.) Whenever a deportation order shall have been issued against any person it shall be lawful for the Governor, by order under the hand of the Colonial Secretary, to do all or any of the following things :—

- (a.) To order that the person against whom the deportation order has been issued shall depart from the Colony by a particular ship whatever the immediate or ultimate destination of the said ship.
- (b.) In case it may in the opinion of the Governor be impracticable or inexpedient that such person should depart from the Colony by any ship by which he has been ordered to depart to substitute as often as may be necessary another ship as the ship by which such person shall depart from the Colony.
- (c.) To extend from time to time the time within which such person shall depart from the Colony.

Provided that where extradition proceedings have been previously taken against any such person, and the said proceedings have resulted in the discharge of such person either by a magistrate or by the Supreme Court on habeas corpus, nothing in this sub-section shall be construed as empowering the Governor to order such person to leave the Colony by any ship the immediate destination of which is a place in the territory of the State by which the surrender of such person was demanded.

(2.) Any order made under paragraph (a) of sub-section (1) of this section shall be sufficient authority to all police officers and to the master and crew of the ship to use such force and restraint as may be necessary in order to carry out such order.

(3.) Any order made under this section may be endorsed on the deportation order and may be in the form in the schedule hereto or as near thereto as the circumstances may permit.

3. Paragraph (e) of sub-section (12) of section 4 of the Deportation Ordinance, 1912, as enacted by section 2 of the Deportation Ordinance, 1914, is amended by the omission of the words "or is registered in a British Consulate in China as a person entitled to British protection in China" in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth lines of the said paragraph, and by the substitution therefor of the words "under the hand of the Governor and the public seal of the Colony".

Amendment of Ordinance 9 of 1912, s. 4 (12) (e), as enacted by Ordinance 20 of 1914, s. 2.

Passed the Legislative Council of Hongkong, this 30th day of December, 1915.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Clerk of Councils.

Assented to by His Excellency the Governor, the 31st day of December, 1915.
