

No. 216.—It is hereby notified that the Regulations published in the Government Gazette of the 13th April, 1917, have been rescinded and the following regulation substituted therefor:—

Women and children may not travel through the danger zones except by permission of the Governor which will not be given except in cases of great urgency.

This regulation does not apply to women and children of other than British nationality who travel by other than British ships.

No. 217.—The following regulations relating to persons entering or leaving Australia are published for general information:—

Passport means a passport issued or renewed not more than two years previously by, or on behalf of, the Government of the country of which the person to whom it relates is a subject or citizen, which contains a personal description sufficient to identify that person, to which is attached a photograph of that person, and which is still in force; and, in the case of a British subject, includes a certificate of nationality, issued by a British Consul or other Officer authorised to issue such certificates, which contains a personal description sufficient to identify the person to whom it relates, to which is attached a photograph of that person, and which is still in force.

British subjects abroad who are unable to obtain passports will be permitted to land on production of a certificate of nationality. All passports and certificates of nationality issued at inland places must be visaed at the port of embarkation.

A. G. M. FLETCHER,
Colonial Secretary.
