Circular Fourteenth.

Following approved by the President August 17, 1917: resolved that the exports council hereby recommends to the President that he instructs the Secretary of Commerce as follows: export licenses shall be refused in any case where the consignee is one of the persons described in any one of the following paragraphs, regardless of the nationality of such consignee:—

(1.) The following persons referred to as enemies and allies of enemies:—

- (a) Any individual, partnership or other body of individuals, of any nationality, resident within the territory (including that occupied by the military and naval forces) of any nation with which the United States is at war, or any ally of such nation, or resident outside the United States and doing business within such territory; and any corporation, incorporated within such territory, or incorporated within any country other than the United States, and doing business within such territory;
- (b) The Government of any nation with which the United States is at war, or an ally of such nation, or any political or municipal subdivision thereof, or any officer, official agent or agency thereof;
- (c) Such other individuals or body of individuals, as may be natives, citizens, or subjects of any nation with which the United States is at war, or an ally of such nation wherever resident or wherever doing business as the President, if he shall find the safety of the United States or the successful prosecution of the war shall so require, may by proclamation under law include within the terms "enemy" or "ally of enemy". The words "United States", as used herein, shall be deemed to mean all land and water, continental or insular, in any way within the jurisdiction of the United States, or occupied by the military or naval forces thereof.

(2.) Persons who participate and use the articles exported from the United States, in or in connection with any of the following acts:—

- (a) To trade or attempt to trade with an enemy, or for, or on account of, or on behalf of, or for the benefit of any enemy, either directly or indirectly, with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that the persons with or for or on account of or on behalf of or for the benefit of whom such trade is conducted, or attempted to be conducted, is an enemy;
