NOTICES.

COLONIAL SECRETARY'S DEPARTMENT.

No. 557.

The Liquors Consolidation Ordinance, 1911.

Whereas by section 44 (1) of the Liquors Consolidation Ordinance, 1911, Ordinance No. 9 of 1911, it is enacted that no person shall import or export dutiable liquors or denatured spirits except into or from such ports or places as may be notified by the Governor:

And whereas, as appears by notification set forth on page 442 of the Regulations of Hong Kong, 1844-1925, the following ports or places have been so notified, namely,—

1. The harbour of Victoria, as defined in section 39 B (7) of the Interpretation Ordinance, 1911.
2. Tai O in the Island of Lantau in the New Territories.

Now it is hereby notified that His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to direct that Tai O in the said Island of Lantau shall cease, forthwith, to be a port or place into or from which dutiable liquors or denatured spirits may be imported or exported; and that the harbour of Victoria, as defined in section 39 B (7) of the Interpretation Ordinance, 1911, as amended by Ordinance No. 1 of 1927, is and shall be a notified port or place for the purposes aforesaid.

E. R. HALLIFAX,
Colonial Secretary.

3rd September, 1930.
