

second part shall contain the names of persons authorised to audit accounts kept in Chinese. After the publication of the first annual list, where the accounts of a company are kept in English, no person shall be appointed auditor unless his name appears in the first part of the current authorised list, and where the accounts of a company are kept in Chinese, no person shall be appointed auditor unless his name appears in the second part of the current authorised list. Every company which keeps its accounts partly in English and partly in Chinese shall have its accounts audited as to that part which is kept in English by a person whose name appears in the first part of the current authorised list and as to that part which is kept in Chinese by a person whose name appears in the second part of the current authorised list. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent the Governor in Council authorising the inclusion of a name in both parts of the current authorised list; and nothing herein shall be deemed to require a second auditor for the daily summary in the English language referred to in the proviso in section 77 (1).
