

No. 449.

Hong Kong.

ORDINANCE No. 5 of 1922. (EMERGENCY REGULATIONS).

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Emergency Regulations Ordinance, 1922, the Governor in Council makes the following regulations:—

Prevention and Mitigation of Cholera.

1. No hawker, whether licensed or otherwise, shall sell or expose for sale or offer for sale any fresh fruit unless the same is whole, that is to say, uncut and unpeeled.
2. No hawker, whether licensed or otherwise, shall sell or expose for sale or offer for sale ice cream, or any frozen or chilled preparation commonly known as "ice cream" unless he holds a permit in writing in that behalf signed by the Head of the Sanitary Department and by the Medical Officer of Health issued to him after the date of this regulation.
3. No hawker, whether licensed or otherwise shall sell or expose for sale or offer for sale any non-aerated drinks, in the preparation of which fruit juice or herbs (other than tea) are used, unless he holds a permit in writing in that behalf signed by the Head of the Sanitary Department and by the Medical Officer of Health issued to him after the date of this regulation.
4. No hawker, whether licensed or otherwise shall sell or expose for sale or offer for sale any of the jellies known as Leung Fan (涼粉) and Man Tau Lo (饅頭蘿) unless he holds a permit in writing in that behalf signed by the Head of the Sanitary Department and by the Medical Officer of Health issued to him after the date of this regulation.
5. Every person who contravenes any of these regulations shall upon summary conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

D. W. TRATMAN,
Clerk of Councils.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
7th July, 1932.
