Hong Kong.

ORDINANCE No. 34 of 1910.
(NEW TERRITORIES REGULATION).

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 6 of the New Territories Regulation Ordinance, 1910, and of all other powers in that behalf enabling, the Governor in Council rescinds rule 9 of the rules set forth under the heading "Kerosene oil licences in the New Territories (except New Kowloon)" on pages 420 to 423 of the Regulations of Hong Kong, 1844-1925, and substitutes the following rule therefor:—

9.—(1) The fees payable for any licence to store kerosene oil and to sell the same granted under these rules shall be as follows:—

(a) Where the quantity does not exceed 40 gallons .....	$5.00
(b) Where the quantity does not exceed 500 gallons .....	$5.00
(c) Where the quantity exceeds 500 gallons but does not exceed 1,000 gallons .....	$10.00
(d) Where the quantity exceeds 1,000 gallons but does not exceed 2,000 gallons .....	$20.00
(e) Where the quantity exceeds 2,000 gallons but does not exceed 4,000 gallons .....	$40.00
(f) Where the quantity exceeds 4,000 gallons .....	$100.00

The said fees shall be payable for the year, or part of the year, ending on the 17th day of April during which such licence is in force.

(2) The fee payable for any other licence granted under these rules for the storage of any inflammable liquid or of any of the dangerous goods referred to in the said Part VIII shall be the same as that payable under the provisions of the regulations for the time being in force under section 5 of the Dangerous Goods Ordinance, 1873, for a licence of like character for storage of such inflammable liquid or dangerous goods.

D. W. TRATMAN,
Clerk of Councils.
