ORDINANCE No. 1 of 1873. (DANGEROUS GOODS).

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Dangerous Goods Ordinance, 1873, the Governor in Council rescinds the regulations made under the aforesaid Ordinance and published as Government Notification No. 555 in the Gazette of the 4th September, 1931, and substitutes the following regulation therefor:—

1. A separate licence shall be obtained and issued for and in respect of each and every place used for the storage of petrol or other light oil or spirit intended for use as fuel for vehicles driven by means of internal combustion engines where such place is equipped with any pump or other mechanical means of transferring such petrol or other light oil or spirit from the storage tanks or receptacles to vehicles.

2. The fees to be charged and paid for licences to store dangerous goods, which licences will expire on the 31st day of March next after the date of the issue thereof, shall be as follows.—

(1) For every licence issued under the preceding regulation

- |  |       |
|--|-------|
| (a) where the storage capacity of the tanks or receptacles does not exceed 500 gallons .....                             | $10  |
| (b) where the storage capacity of the tanks or receptacles exceeds 500 gallons but does not exceed 1,000 gallons .....   | $15  |
| (c) where the storage capacity of the tanks or receptacles exceeds 1,000 gallons but does not exceed 2,000 gallons ..... | $20  |
| (d) where the storage capacity of the tanks or receptacles exceeds 2,000 gallons but does not exceed 4,000 gallons ..... | $40  |
| (e) where the storage capacity of the tanks or receptacles exceeds 4,000 gallons ...                                     | $100 |

(2) For every licence (other than a licence under the preceding regulation) to store inflammable liquids, whether packed or in bulk:—

- |   |      |

ORDINANCE No. 1 of 1903. (PUBLIC HEALTH AND BUILDINGS).

Whereas by Notification No. 405 published in the Gazette of the 24th June, 1932, the Governor in Council declared that an occasion existed, in those districts of the Colony to which Part II of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance, 1903, applies, which, for the prevention of cholera, necessitated the coming into force of By-laws Nos. 9 (b) and 9 (c) of the By-laws for the prevention and mitigation of epidemic, endemic, contagious or infectious disease made under the above-mentioned Ordinance :

And Whereas by Notification No. 532 published in the Gazette of the 19th August, 1932, the Governor in Council declared that an occasion existed, in the aforesaid districts, which, for the prevention of cholera, necessitated the coming into force of By-laws Nos. 9 (d) and 9 (e) of the said By-laws :

Now the Governor in Council doth hereby order that as from the date of the publication hereof the above-mentioned declarations shall cease to subsist.

D. W. TRATMAN,
Clerk of Councils.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
24th October, 1932.

Notice.

The effect of the above mentioned order is that the said By-laws, which affected the sale of cut fruit, ice cream, non-aerated drinks prepared from fruit juice and herbs and the jellies known as Leung Fan and Man Tau Lo, are in abeyance.
