

The Hong Kong Government Gazette Extraordinary

Published by Authority

MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1933.

The following Notification is published,

By command,

W. T. SOUTHORN,
Colonial Secretary.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

No. 283.

Hong Kong.

ORDINANCE No. 21 of 1927. (DOGS).

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Dogs Ordinance, 1927, the Governor in Council hereby determines the suspension of regulation No. 21 of the regulations made under the said Ordinance on the 24th day of November, 1927, published in the Gazette of the 25th November, 1927, as Notification No. 694, and amended as appears in Government Notifications No. 377 of 1930 and No. 730 of 1931.

D. W. TRATMAN,
Clerk of Councils.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
24th April, 1933.

NOTE.—Regulation 21, the suspension of which is now determined, is commonly known as the muzzling order. The former suspension of regulations 22, 23 and 25 was determined by G. N. 495 of 1931. No regulation is now suspended, and the complete set of regulations, 1—27, is in force.
