

SUPREME COURT.

No. 630.—The attention of the officers or agents of companies incorporated outside the Colony which establish places of business within the Colony after the 1st July, 1933, or which have established places of business in the Colony before that date and have not hitherto delivered to the Registrar of Companies for registration the required documents, is called to the necessity for complying with the requirements of Part XI of the Companies Ordinance, 1932.

Default in compliance with these requirements renders the Company and its officers or agents liable to a fine not exceeding $500, and in the case of continued default to a fine of $50 for every day during which the default continues.

T. M. HAZLERIGG,
Registrar of Companies.

20th September, 1933.
