No. 675.

Hong Kong.

ORDINANCE No. 19 of 1912. (ADVERTISEMENTS REGULATION).

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2 of the Advertisements Regulation Ordinance, 1912, as amended by the Advertisements Regulation Amendment Ordinance, 1925, the Governor in Council further amends the regulations set forth under the heading "Advertisements Regulation" on pages 615 and 616 of the Regulations of Hong Kong, 1844-1925, by the rescission of regulation 1 (on page 615) and the substitution of the following regulation therefor:—

1. It shall not be lawful for any person by himself or by any billposter or other person employed by him to affix or otherwise exhibit any hoarding, notice board, or poster used for the purpose of advertising upon or against private property without the consent of the owner or his representative and of the occupier, or upon or against any railway (as defined in section 2 of the Railways Ordinance, 1909, as amended by Ordinance No. 28 of 1927) of which the administrator (as defined in the said section 2) has the custody and administration without the consent in writing of such administrator (now the Manager of the Railway), or upon or against Crown property without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Works, or except by virtue of some other sufficient legal authority.

R. A. C. NORTH,
Clerk of Councils.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
11th October, 1933.
