ORDINANCE No. 10 of 1911. (UNIVERSITY).

In exercise of the power in that behalf conferred by section 14 of the University Ordinance, 1911, the Court of the University of Hong Kong on the 9th day of December, 1935, amended the Statutes of the University by rescinding paragraph 5 of statute 3, as amended on the 17th April, 1925, and published as Government Notification No. 350 in the Gazette of the 19th June, 1925, and by substituting the following paragraph therefor:—

5. The Dean of the Faculty of Medicine shall be elected by the Board of that Faculty. A Dean who has been so elected shall hold office for the period for which such Dean is elected, but such period shall not exceed three years at any one time. If any Dean shall vacate office the Board of the Faculty shall forthwith elect another Dean who shall hold office for the period for which such new elected Dean is elected but such period shall not exceed three years. A Dean who has been elected as aforesaid shall be eligible for re-election. The first election under this clause shall take place during the first month in the academic year 1936 and thereafter from time to time as soon as is conveniently possible after the office of Dean has become vacant.

The Deans of the Faculties of Engineering and Arts shall be elected by the respective Boards of those Faculties during the first month of each academic year. A Dean who has been so elected shall hold office for twelve months from the first day of the second month of each academic year and shall be eligible for re-election. If any Dean shall vacate office, the Board of that Faculty shall forthwith elect another Dean who shall hold office until the last day of the first month of the next ensuing academic year.

The said amendment having been allowed by the Governor in Council on the 14th day of January, 1936, becomes valid and operative on the publication of this notification.
