(2) Condition 9 in Form No. 1 is amended by the substitution of the words "any such Government as is mentioned in Condition 7" for the words "His Majesty's Government".

(3) Condition 10 in Form No. 2 is amended by the substitution of the words "the Hong Kong Government" for the words "His Majesty's Government".

(4) Condition (1) in Form No. 3 is amended by the substitution of the words "the Hong Kong Government" for the words "His Majesty's Government".

(5) The following form is inserted after Form No. 3.

FORM No. 3A.

The Telecommunication Ordinance, 1936.

LIMITED RECEIVING AND PUBLISHING
RADIO STATION LICENCE.
HONG KONG

.....
(name in full)

of.....
(address in full)

Address of station .....

This licence authorises the licensee to establish a wireless receiving station and to distribute press messages received from ..... for publication in the ..... until the 31st day of December, 19 , subject to the conditions set forth hereon.

Dated this ..... day of ..... 19 , $600.

CONDITIONS.

(1) The reception of messages other than those specified in this licence is prohibited. If any other message is unintentionally received, the licensee shall not make known, or allow to be made known, its contents, its origin or destination, its existence or the fact of its receipt to any person (other than a duly authorised officer of the Hong Kong Government, or a competent legal tribunal), and shall not reproduce in writing, copy, or make any use of such message, or allow the same to be reproduced in writing, copied, or made use of.

(2) The station shall not be used in such a manner as to cause interference with the working of other stations. In particular, reaction must not be used to such an extent as to energeise any neighbouring aerial.

(3) The combined height and length of the external aerial, where one is employed, shall not exceed 100 feet. An aerial which crosses above, or is liable to fall upon, or to be blown on to any overhead power wire, including electric lighting and tramway wires, must be guarded to the reasonable satisfaction of the owner of the power wire concerned. All aerials erected externally to the building shall be fitted with an earthing switch, and the aerial shall be left earthed when not in use. No aerial shall be erected in such a way that, in falling or being lowered, it shall occupy or traverse a public thoroughfare.

(4) The earth connection shall where possible consist of a buried plate or tube in the ground external to the building. Where this arrangement is not possible a soldered connection should be made to the water pipe. On no account shall a gas pipe be used as an earth.

(5) The apparatus shall be open to inspection at all times by any person who produces a written authority to inspect, either general or particular, signed by the Postmaster General, and this licence shall be produced to any such person upon request by him.

(6) This licence is not transferable to another person.

(7) Any alterations to the addresses specified in this licence must be notified to the licensing authority and the licence presented for correction. No fee is payable for this.

(8) The conditions of this licence may be modified at any time by the Postmaster General.

(9) The licensee shall, if so required by the Postmaster General, cease at once to use the licensed apparatus for such period as may be specified.

NOTES.

1. If it is desired to continue to maintain the station or to retain possession of the apparatus after the date of expiration of this licence, a renewal must be effected not later than the date of expiration. Heavy penalties are provided by the Ordinance for maintaining a wireless station or possessing the apparatus without a valid current licence.

2. This licence may be cancelled by the Postmaster General at any time, either by notice in writing addressed to the licensee at the address specified in this licence, or by a general notice in the Government Gazette, or in such other way as he may think fit. Any contravention of any of the conditions of this licence may cause cancellation of the licence.

3. This licence does not authorise the licensee to do any act which is an infringement of any copyright which may exist in the matter transmitted.
