

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

No. 966.

Hong Kong.

ORDINANCE No. 22 of 1936. (ASYLUMS).

By virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of the Asylums Ordinance, 1936, the Governor in Council prescribes the following forms:—

HONG KONG.

FORM No. 1.

Application for an order for the removal to a mental hospital for the purpose of detention and observation of a person believed to be of unsound mind.

Asylums Ordinance, 1936, s. 7.

I of have reason to believe that of is a person of unsound mind.

The reasons for my belief are as follows:—

- (a) (Result of personal observation).
(b) (Facts communicated to me by others).

Strike out the inappropriate paragraph.

..... of who is said to be of the person in question, has been communicated with, with the following result —

or

No relative of the person in question can be found in the Colony.

I therefore apply under section 7 of the Asylums Ordinance, 1936, for a written order authorizing the said to be conveyed to the Government Mental Hospital and to be detained there under observation for a period not exceeding seven days.

Dated the day of , 19.....

Signature of applicant.

G.  R.

HONG KONG.

FORM No. 2.

Order by a magistrate or justice of the peace authorizing the removal to a mental hospital for the purpose of detention and observation of a person alleged to be of unsound mind.

Asylums Ordinance, 1936, s. 7.

Whereas of
..... has satisfied me the undersigned that there is reason to believe that.....
..... of
..... is of unsound mind, I hereby order that the said be conveyed to the Government Mental Hospital and be there detained under observation for a period not exceeding seven days from and including the date of this order.

Dated the day of , 19.....

.....
*Magistrate,
Justice of the Peace.*

NOTE.—The period of detention authorized by this order will expire at midnight on the seventh day, counting the date of the order as the first day.

HONG KONG.

FORM No. 3.

Certificate of medical practitioners as to unsoundness of mind.

Asylums Ordinance, 1936, Sec. 9.

We
 and
 medical practitioners, hereby certify that

 Age Sex Nationality
 of at present
 detained for observation under the authority of the Asylums Ordinance, 1936, is in our opinion a person of unsound mind.

The reasons for my opinion are as follows:—

Dated the day of , 19.....

.....
Medical Practitioner.

The reasons for my opinion are as follows:—

Dated the day of , 19.....

.....
Medical Practitioner.

Countersigned.

.....
Magistrate.

Dated the day of , 19.....

HONG KONG.

FORM No. 4.

Certificate of medical practitioners for extension of period of detention for observation.

Asylums Ordinance, 1936, s. 10.

We
and
medical practitioners, hereby certify that it is in our opinion necessary that now detained in the Government Mental Hospital for observation under the authority of the Asylums Ordinance, 1936, should be detained there for the purpose of observation for a further period of seven days from and after the expiration of the order of the magistrate (or justice of the peace) under section 7, which is dated the..... day of....., 19..... (or, for a further period of seven days from and after the day of , 19.....,
on which day the first extension expired).

The reasons which in my opinion render it necessary to detain
the said for further
observation are as follows:—

Dated the day of , 19.....

.....
Medical Practitioner.

The reasons which in my opinion render it necessary to detain
the said for further
observation are as follows:—

Dated the day of , 19.....

.....
Medical Practitioner.

Countersigned.

.....
Magistrate.

Dated the day of , 19.....

NOTE.—The period of each extension is limited to seven days. The first day of the first extended period will be the day immediately after the expiration of the order under section 7: see the note to Form No. 2. There cannot be more than two extensions.

G.

R.

HONG KONG.

FORM No. 5.

Form of order to be given by the senior medical officer for the time being present in and on the staff of a hospital for the removal to a mental hospital for the purpose of detention and observation of a patient who shows symptoms of suffering from delirium tremens.

Asylums Ordinance, 1936, s. 11.

I,, being the senior officer for the time being present in and on the staff of the Hospital, have examined a patient in the said hospital and find that he shows symptoms of suffering from delirium tremens and I hereby order him to be removed from the said hospital to the Government Mental Hospital and to be detained there under observation for a period not exceeding seven days from and including the date of this order.

Dated the day of, 19.....

.....
(Signature)

NOTE.—The medical officer signing this order must be a registered medical practitioner, or a Government medical officer, or a medical officer of His Majesty's Navy or Army serving in the Colony on full pay, or a professor of the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Hong Kong.

T. MEGARRY,
Clerk of Councils.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
9th December, 1938.